

INVITATION

Debriefing on the Katowice Climate Conference

Changing together for a Just Transition: a new era of implementation and higher ambition

📅 Wednesday, 23 January 2019 ⌚ 10:30-12:30

📍 International Environment House II (7-9 ch. de Ballexert)

The Katowice Climate Change Conference took place from 2-15 December, 2018 in Katowice, Poland, and brought together over 22,000 participants. All the governing and subsidiary bodies for the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), the Kyoto Protocol, and the Paris Agreement convened, and focused on the operationalization of the Paris Agreement.

You are cordially invited to attend a briefing on the outcomes of the Katowice Climate Change conference, organized by the Geneva Environment Network Secretariat, in collaboration with the Geneva Climate Change Consultation Group (GeCCco) and the International Institute for Sustainable Development. This event will also address the links with processes ongoing in Geneva.

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

The Polish Presidency of the 24th Conference of the Parties to UNFCCC (COP24) and the Katowice Rulebook

The Permanent or Deputy permanent representative of the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Poland to the United Nations Office in Geneva

Discussing the outcomes and the links with processes in Geneva

Benjamin SCHACHTER, Climate Change Focal Point, Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights

Moustapha Kamal GUEYE, Coordinator, Green Jobs Programme, International Labour Organization

Philip GASS, Senior Policy Advisor, International Institute for Sustainable Development

Jolein HOLTZ, Fellow, Center for International Environmental Law

Moderation: Yves LADOR, Geneva Representative, Earthjustice

Registration: <https://goo.gl/PCWJQu> by 22 January